August 2020

*Grass withers, flowers fade, but the Word of our God endures forever.
Translators come, translations go, but the Word of our God endures forever.*

Metric Version

The metric version of the EHV study Bible to be used around the world is now available from the Microsoft Store. The metric text of the EHV is also being entered into the Digital Bible Library (DBL) for use by translators from around the world. For this purpose, the Wartburg Project has been accepted by the United Bible Societies as intellectual property providers for the DBL. Once it is on DBL, the metric EHV will be available for licensing.

After we posted an announcement of the availability of our metric-system version of the EHV study Bible on Academia, we received the following response.

Hi Wartburg,

Congratulations! You uploaded your paper 2 days ago and it is already gaining traction.

You got 154 views from Nigeria, the United States, Zimbabwe, South Africa, Hong Kong, the United Kingdom, Zambia, Kenya, Portugal, Angola, Germany, Pakistan, Finland, India, Ethiopia, France, the Islamic Republic of Iran, the Netherlands, Mexico, the United Republic of Tanzania, Egypt, Australia, Canada, Singapore, Taiwan, Romania, and Armenia on "EHV Study Bible: Metric Edition".

Thanks,
The Academia.edu Team

We also received views from country unknown, which may be from countries which are not open to unhindered use of the internet for certain topics. A view is not the same as a read. Some viewers simply look at the topic; some read part of the paper; some read all of it. Nevertheless, our posting is drawing attention to the EHV in academic circles around the world.

A fuller booklet about the non-metric EHV has been posted on Academia for some time, and receives regular traffic from around the world.

The announcement that was posted on Academia is included in this month's articles.

The Wartburg Project is a group of WELS and ELS pastors, professors, teachers, and laypeople who are working together to pass our evangelical heritage from age to age by producing a new translation of the Bible called the Evangelical Heritage Version® or EHV®.

Getting Ready for the School Year

The start of a new school year, new Sunday School year, and fall Bible classes is upon us. Now is the time to order your EHV resources for the year.

For ordering information on various forms and products of the EHV go to the Wartburg Project website and use the tabs that appear on the home page.

For more detailed information about more resources, click on the BOOKSTORE tab at the top of the WP home page. 🔗

This Month's Articles

1. Announcement of the Metric EHV on Academia 🔗

2. Biblical Weights and Measures—Metric Version 🔗

Relatively few American readers will be interested in the metric EHV, but you should read this article anyway. It discusses the problems of dealing with ancient measurement and with the EHV's approach to the problem.

3. FAQ 62: British or American Spelling of Worshipped? 🔗

The study of grammar and spelling has been revolutionized by the ability to search massive volumes of literature for specific usages. The spelling of the word worshipped is considered as an example of this phenomenon.

We currently are well funded to complete the study Bible projects. If you would like to continue to support the Wartburg Project, we suggest supplying gift copies of EHV to family, friends, called workers, schools, prisons, and other institutions.

See our website (wartburgproject.org) for more information relating to the EHV. See FAQ #15 on the name EHV. A paper explaining our name is posted in the “Library” section.

Sign up on the “Contact” page to receive free e-reports. Like us on Facebook to receive the latest updates posted there. (The purpose of our Facebook posting is not debate, but we have been able to share information with many people very quickly that way (sometimes more than 10,000); recently many more are downloading our captioned pictures).
