

The Wartburg Project

April 2022

*Grass withers, flowers fade, but the Word of our God endures forever.
Translators come, translations go, but the Word of our God endures forever.*

SPREAD THE WORD

It is not too early to start ordering material for the next school year.

Our basic suite of EHV works has been completed. It includes the basic print Bible from Northwestern Publishing House; the print study Bible available from NPH; the Microsoft EHV Computer Study Bible from the Microsoft Store; the Logos version of the study Bible available from FaithLife; a condensed Bible, The Story of God's Love, from NPH; and EHV versions of Luther's Small Catechism from NPH and the ELS Bookstore. Spread the Word.

WIDENING CIRCLES

Media presentations last month included an interview on KFUO, the Missouri Synod's radio station [\[Link\]](#) and a presentation to the spring conference of the International Society of Bible Collectors.

We have given permission for use of the EHV in many projects, small and large and are always open to proposals.

Chromebook

We are still interested in receiving more information about school use of EHV on Chromebooks.

For school use, the EHV Study Bible from the Microsoft Store works well on Windows computers and devices. The biblical text and the study notes modules from Faith/Life Logos also work on Apple computers and Apple and Android phones. There are some compatibility and capacity issues that hinder use on Chromebooks for schools. It seems that the LOGOS version of the notes and text could be run on Chromebooks, or the notes could be used along side the EHV text posted on Bible Gateway (but they would not sync). Perhaps we could create an e-book of some sort or a pdf of the notes to be used on Chromebooks if there is sufficient demand. If you are currently using the Study Bible on Chromebook or have found some work-around to make it work well on Chromebook, please share the information with us. Or if you have any other suggestions for increasing Chromebook compatibility, please share that also.

PICTURES FROM THE EHV MICROSOFT STUDY BIBLE

Each month for the next few months we will have two pictures from the Microsoft Store EHV Computer Study Bible.

THIS MONTH'S ARTICLES

FAQ 76: Acts 1:26 – Ballots or Lots?

This article debates whether the process of choosing a new apostle to replace Judas was done by lot or by ballot, on the basis of the Greek and Hebrew terms for these processes.

KFUO radio interview about the EHV print study Bible

Dr. John F. Brug joins Andy and Sarah to talk about the Evangelical Heritage Version and the exciting features in the new EHV Study Bible.

OFFERINGS TO THE WARTBURG PROJECT

Audio Bible

We have plans underway to produce an audio version of the EHV for free distribution. If you would like to help with the production costs of this Bible, please designate your gift for Audio EHV.

Gifts for Africa and Asia

We have plans underway to provide gift copies of EHV computer study Bibles to teachers in Africa and Asia. Each copy costs about $20 depending on currency exchange rates and local taxes. If your offering is intended to be used entirely for that purpose, please note that it is for AACB (Africa Asia Computer Bibles).

Undesignated

If you would like to support the modest ongoing overhead costs of the Wartburg Project, such as maintaining our websites; trademark renewals; and updates of translations, you may send offerings to the address below.

The address of our financial office is:

The Wartburg Project
907 Mattes Drive
Midland, Michigan 48642-3708.

See our website (wartburgproject.org) for more information relating to the EHV. See FAQ #15 on the name EHV. A paper explaining our name is posted in the “Library” section.

Sign up on the “Contact” page to receive free e-reports. Like us on Facebook to receive the latest updates posted there. (The purpose of our Facebook posting is not debate, but we have been able to share information with many people very quickly that way (sometimes more than 10,000). Many people are downloading our captioned pictures.
