The Wartburg Project is a group of WELS and ELS pastors, professors, teachers, and laypeople who are working together to produce a new translation of the Bible called the Evangelical Heritage Version® or EHV®.

“Purely Positive”

The Wartburg Project began in the fall of 2013. After all of the debating about Bible translation, we set out to quietly try our best to translate the Bible. We adopted the phrase “purely positive” to remind ourselves to avoid debates and just keep working on our project. God’s Word is our great heritage. We set out to use our gifts to share God’s Word, “to spread its light from age to age.” That’s been our “chief endeavor.” God has richly blessed our efforts.

This Month's Free Articles

1. Encore Offering: Getting Ready for the EHV.

This rerun of a previous offering is a 35-page booklet which is a collection of four articles which introduces prospective readers to some of the main issues to consider concerning the EHV.

2. Biblical Grammar: Mechanics or Meaning?

This updated 53-page booklet presents the principles of grammar and spelling that were learned and applied during the production of the EHV. The nature of grammatical study has been revolutionized by the ability to search vast amounts of literature in order to gather objective, “real life” statistics on any specific grammatical construction or on the spelling of a word. The insights gained from this approach were utilized in the production of the EHV.

3. FAQ 54 Possessive or Adjective?

Should the term pastors conference be punctuated pastors' conference, pastor's conference, or pastors conference? Find out in this FAQ and see how the answer was applied in the EHV.

4. FAQ 55 Hey, Boys

Would Jesus say, “Hey, boys, got any fish?” to his disciples? Find out in this discussion of formal vs informal speech in the Bible?

Coming Studies

We will be providing you with a fairly steady diet of articles, booklets, and other materials about the EHV. Among them will be:

1. An updated catalog of our library and FAQs.
2. More new FAQs and articles.
3. The Appendices to the EHV Study Bible.

We currently are well funded to complete the study Bible project. If you would like to continue to support the project, you may supply gift copies of EHV to family, friends, called workers, schools, prisons, and other institutions.

See our website (wartburgproject.org) for more information relating to the EHV. See FAQ #15 on the name EHV. A paper explaining our name is posted in the “Library” section.
