

The Wartburg Project

March 2020

*Grass withers, flowers fade, but the Word of our God endures forever.
Translators come, translations go, but the Word of our God endures forever.*

News

A lot is going on but there is not much new news. Work is continuing on the Apple, Android, Chromebook, and print editions of the study Bible.

Confirmation and graduation are coming soon—a good time to think about gift editions of the EHV.

This Month's Article

This month's article, "FAQ 60: Laws, Rules, or Guidelines," deals with the EHV approach to grammatical and spelling issues. This is illustrated by a discussion of the question whether the word "none" is singular or plural.

Coming Studies

We will be providing you with a fairly steady diet of articles, booklets, and other materials about the EHV. Among them will be:

1. An updated catalog of our library and FAQs.
2. More new FAQs and articles.

Order the digital EHV Study Bible from the Microsoft Store

---

Order print editions of the EHV from Northwestern Publishing House

The complete EHV is now available online
on BibleGateway

The EHV is now available for the LOGOS
digital library

We currently are well funded to complete the study Bible project. If you would like to continue to support the project, you may supply gift copies of EHV to family, friends, called workers, schools, prisons, and other institutions.

See our website (wartburgproject.org) for more information relating to the EHV. See FAQ #15 on the name EHV. A paper explaining our name is posted in the "Library" section.

Sign up on the "Contact" page to receive free e-reports. Like us on Facebook to receive the latest updates posted there. (The purpose of our Facebook posting is not debate, but we have been able to share information with many people very quickly that way (sometimes more than 10,000); recently many more are downloading our captioned pictures).

The address of our financial office is:
