

The Wartburg Project

April 2020

*Grass withers, flowers fade, but the Word of our God endures forever.
Translators come, translations go, but the Word of our God endures forever.*

News

Since virtually all of our work is done online or at home, the current shut-downs and isolation practices do not have a significant effect on our work. Work is continuing on the Apple, Android, Chromebook, and print editions of the study Bible.

We are thinking about producing a metric version for use outside the USA. If you have any thoughts about this or are interested in helping with metric conversion, contact us through the reply form.

Confirmation and graduation are coming soon—a good time to think about gift editions of the EHV. With the shut-down of so many face-to-face Bible classes, now might be a time that the electronic Microsoft Store version of the EHV study Bible would be particularly useful for your personal Bible study. The attached article provides information about this work and the home page of the Wartburg Project website has a button that directs you to the purchase site.

An EHV Study Bible

This Month's Article

This month's first "article" is actually not an article but a devotion booklet produced by the Evangelical Lutheran Synod's Board for Home Outreach. This booklet "Good News For You: Peace Devotions" is based on material taken from the site PeaceDevotions.com. It is an example of the growing number of Bible study materials based on texts from the EHV. We hope it will be useful to you in your home devotional life and that it will encourage you to take a look at the site PeaceDevotions.com.

During the recent and present shutdowns there has been much interest in online learning. Two years ago there was an online seminar for highschool and college students called Between a Rock and a Hard Place. The attached document of the same name was the basis for the online discussions of that seminar.

Coming Studies

We will be providing you with a fairly steady diet of articles, booklets, and other materials about the EHV. Among them will be:

1. An updated catalog of our library and FAQs.
2. More new FAQs and articles.

Order the digital
EHV Study Bible from the Microsoft Store

Order print editions of the EHV from Northwestern
Publishing House

The complete EHV is now available online
on BibleGateway

The EHV is now available for the LOGOS
digital library

We currently are well funded to complete the study Bible project. If you would like to continue to support the project, you may supply gift copies of EHV to family, friends, called workers, schools, prisons, and other institutions.

See our website (wartburgproject.org) for more information relating to the EHV. See FAQ #15 on the name EHV. A paper explaining our name is posted in the "Library" section.

Sign up on the "Contact" page to receive free e-reports. Like us on Facebook to receive the latest updates posted there. (The purpose of our Facebook posting is not debate, but we have been able to share information with many people very quickly that way (sometimes more than 10,000); recently many more are downloading our captioned pictures).
