

The Wartburg Project

November 2020

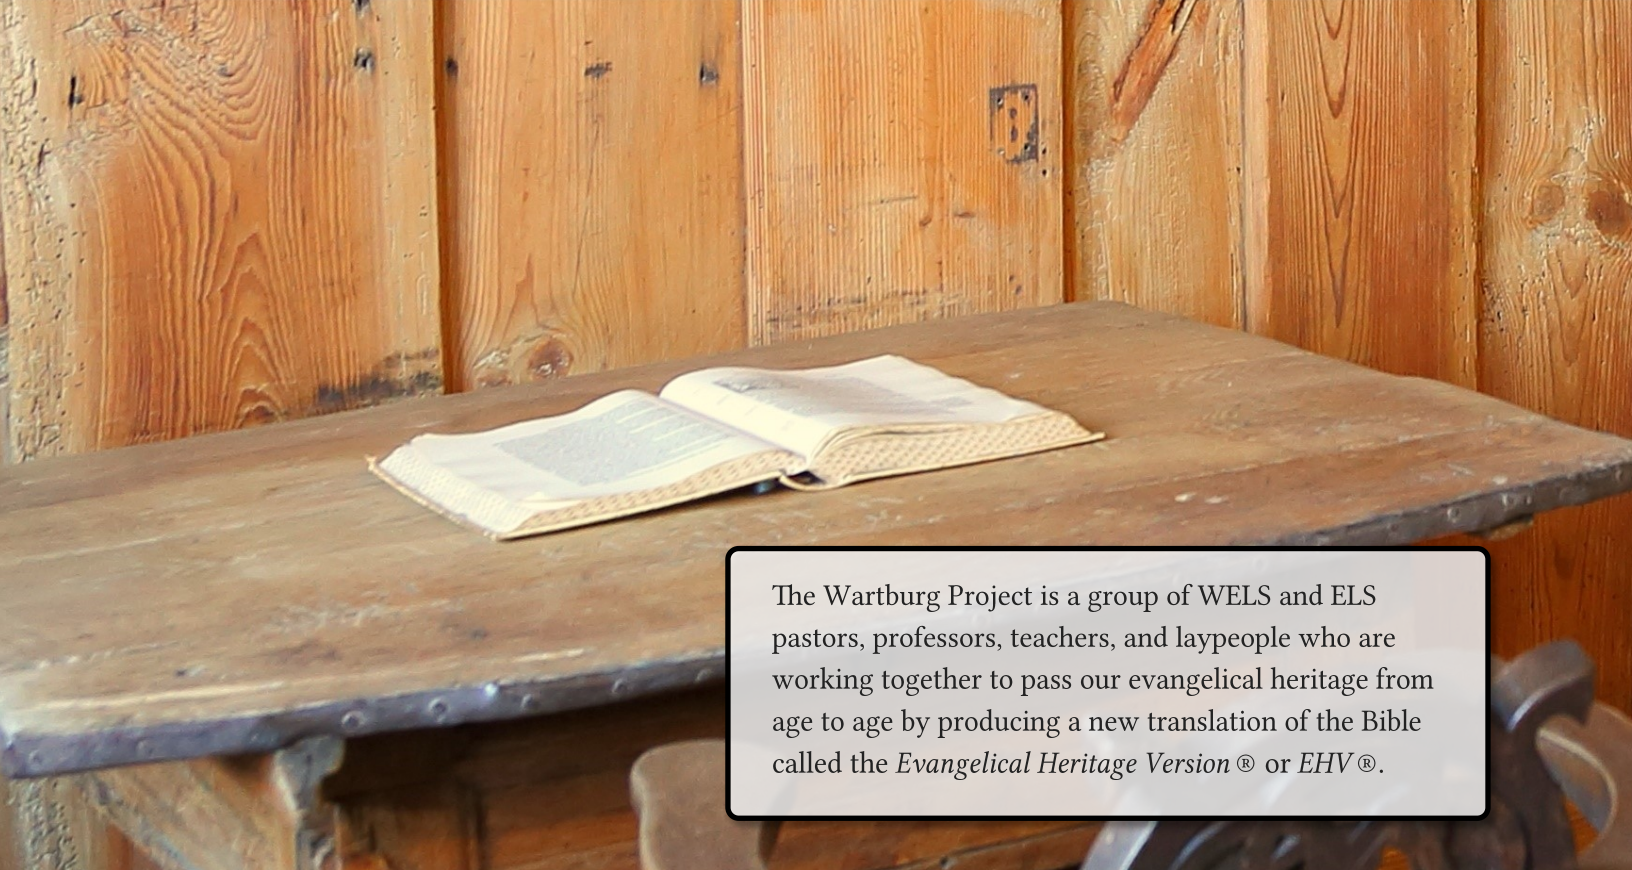

*Grass withers, flowers fade, but the Word of our God endures forever.
Translators come, translations go, but the Word of our God endures forever.*

THANKSGIVING

Give thanks to the Lord, for he is good,
for his mercy endures forever.

Psalm 107:1 EHV

The Wartburg Project is a group of WELS and ELS pastors, professors, teachers, and laypeople who are working together to pass our evangelical heritage from age to age by producing a new translation of the Bible called the Evangelical Heritage Version® or EHV®.

Print Study Bible

We have finished the final proof-reading for the files of the print study Bible. Northwestern Publishing House can now proceed with setup of the Bible, which we expect to be ready for the next school year.

Publicizing the EHV

The fall 2020 issue of the Bible Review Journal, the quarterly of the International Society of Bible Collectors, led off with a nine-page article “Why Should You Try A New Bible Translation? The Evangelical Heritage Version” by John Brug. We are trying to spread news about the availability of the EHV in wider circles. We were unable to attend the annual convention of this society, because this year’s meeting was virtual.

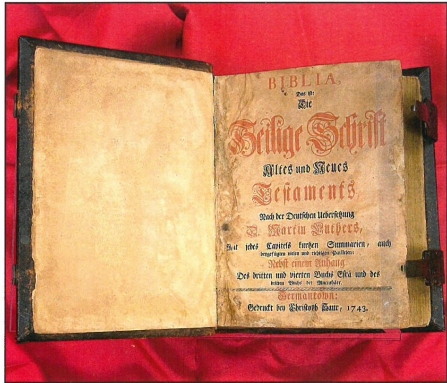

This Month’s Articles

For the next year, the monthly articles will focus on samples of the notes of the EHV study Bible. They will not be in consecutive order but may be grouped by topic or season.

2. EHV Print Study Bible, Sample 4: Introduction to Revelation 🔗

Christmas Shopping

Besides the various editions of the EHV (print pew Bible and deluxe edition from NPH, and electronic study Bibles from the Microsoft Store) on your Christmas shopping lists you may want to include other products from Northwestern Publishing House such as volumes of the People’s Bible commentary series and the Bible Discovery series. Though these series are not based on the EHV text, readers of the EHV will find them informative.

Bible Discovery Series

This series of little books is not based on the EHV text and may offer some different opinions than those in the EHV notes, but users of the EHV will enjoy reading these books along side of the EHV.

See our website (wartburgproject.org) for more information relating to the EHV. See FAQ #15 on the name EHV. A paper explaining our name is posted in the “Library” section.

Sign up on the “Contact” page to receive free e-reports. Like us on Facebook to receive the latest updates posted there. (The purpose of our Facebook posting is not debate, but we have been able to share information with many people very quickly that way (sometimes more than 10,000); recently many more are downloading our captioned pictures).

The address of our financial office is:

The Wartburg Project
907 Mattes Drive
Midland, Michigan 48642-3708.

One way to continue to support the Wartburg Project is to buy gift copies of the print EHV or the electronic study Bibles to present to family, friends, called workers, schools, prisons, and other institutions.
