

The Wartburg Project

May 2020

*Grass withers, flowers fade, but the Word of our God endures forever.
Translators come, translations go, but the Word of our God endures forever.*

News

Since virtually all of our work is done online or at home, the current shut-downs and isolation practices do not have a significant effect on our work. Work is continuing on the Apple, Android, Chromebook, and print editions of the study Bible.

Metric Version

We have made significant progress on a metric version of the EHV for use outside the USA. Initially it may be available only in electronic versions unless we find a publisher interested in printing such a version, at least of the metric text.

Logos Study Bible

The LOGOS version of the EHV study Bible is scheduled for release on May 28. It is already available for preorder. This product is a notes-only module that links with the LOGOS EHV text module. It also has links to other FaithLife resources in the LOGOS Bible software system. The following preorder form contains more information about this new version of the EHV study Bible.

Order the EHV Study Notes from LOGOS.com

Getting Ready for the Next School Year

We hope that by autumn all schools will again be operating in person. Now is the time to be thinking about ordering your EHV resources for the next school year. Our June news will contain the latest information about ordering materials: print Bibles, electronic study Bibles, catechisms, and other parallel resources.

Online Mischief

Attempts of bad actors to redirect searches for websites like our Wartburg Project site to ads that are selling products such as drugs are apparently common in today's online world. These bad actors attempt to pirate the searches to redirect the searcher to their site. The website administrators (us) won't notice, but visitors (you) will end up on the wrong page. Our website was recently hacked in this way. It's been fixed, but if you ever encounter this problem or any other with our website, please notify us immediately.

This Month's Article

This month's article is about Lutheran translators of the English Bible. It is reprinted from the journal of the International Society of Bible Collectors (ISBC), the Bible Review Journal. We thank them for permission to share it with you. You may be interested in other materials on their site.

*English Bible Translations
Produced by Lutherans*

Coming Studies

We will be providing you with a fairly steady diet of articles, booklets, and other materials about the EHV. Among them will be:

1. An updated catalog of our library and FAQs.
2. More new FAQs and articles.

We currently are well funded to complete the study Bible project. If you would like to continue to support the project, you may supply gift copies of EHV to family, friends, called workers, schools, prisons, and other institutions.

See our website (wartburgproject.org) for more information relating to the EHV. See FAQ #15 on the name EHV. A paper explaining our name is posted in the "Library" section.

Sign up on the "Contact" page to receive free e-reports. Like us on Facebook to receive the latest updates posted there. (The purpose of our Facebook posting is not debate, but we have been able to share information with many people very quickly that way (sometimes more than 10,000); recently many more are downloading our captioned pictures).

The address of our financial office is:

The Wartburg Project
907 Mattes Drive
Midland, Michigan 48642-3708.

